

FAIR LENDING ISSUES AND HOT TOPICS WEBINAR

The Federal Reserve System and the Non-Discrimination Working Group of the Financial Fraud Enforcement Task Force invite you to an Outlook Live webinar on Fair Lending Issues and Hot Topics, from 2:00pm – 3:30pm Eastern time (11:00am - 12:30pm Pacific, 12:00pm - 1:30pm Mountain, 1:00pm - 2:30pm Central) on Wednesday, November 2, 2011.

The Financial Fraud Enforcement Task Force was created by President Obama in November 2009 and is the largest coalition whose purpose is to confront financial fraud relating to the financial crisis. The Task Force has a five-part mission, one of which is to address discrimination in the lending and financial markets.

During this session, representatives from the Non-Discrimination Working Group will discuss a variety of emerging fair lending issues and hot topics. Introductory remarks will be provided by Thomas Perez, Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Justice; and Sandra Braunstein, Director of the Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Federal Reserve Board. Speakers of this event will represent a variety of agencies, including: · Department of Justice; · Consumer Financial Protection Bureau; · Federal Reserve Board; · Office of the Comptroller of the Currency; · Department of Housing and Urban Development; and · National Credit Union Administration.

For more information and to register for this FREE event, please visit <http://www.philadelphiafed.org/bank-resources/publications/consumer-compliance-outlook//outlook-live/>

This webinar is part of an ongoing series of events focused specifically on consumer compliance issues. The Outlook Live webinar is a Federal Reserve System initiative produced in conjunction with the quarterly newsletter Consumer Compliance Outlook.